The stage was beautifully decorated with sheaves of grain, grape vines and flowers, backed by tall corn stalks.

Six members acted as escorts to the three graces. Songs in keeping with the theme, and reading of change principles by Ed Higeros was very clearly executed. Tap dancing by Lawrence Peterson and accordion solos by George Pom were well received.

The final number was a reading of a message from National Market Ladies Taboo - by Chas. J. Sutton.

The graces, escorts, and all assistants were groomed in evening dress which added much to the loveliness of the program. Sister Sheridan thanked all who assisted in any way.

A great deal of praise is due Sister Sheridan for presenting such a nice program, and her untiring efforts in decorating the hall in making ready for the members to enjoy the evening.

Refreshments and dancing followed.
